a place for restoration and relaxation

Allansfield has been designed to be a place of rest, refuge and healing. Our Lord withdrew from time to time for meditation and refreshment. We hope Allansfield will provide an atmosphere conducive to the renewal of both body and spirit for all who sojourn here.

We welcome anyone who wants to get away; individuals, couples, families on holiday, church groups on retreat or any small groups looking for a quiet getaway.

Allansfield is administered by the Order of St. Luke the Physician in Australia, an order made up of Christians from all walks of life who belong to a range of Christian churches in the wider community.

Allansfield is an acre property in beautiful Rhyll, located on Phillip island, approx 2 hrs drive from Melbourne's CBD (see map on back) It is a secluded, tree lined property, just a short walk to the beach, cafe's and restaurants. Peaceful walks are close by with an abundance of flora and fauna to be observed in the area
